

The Great Big Fat Mc/Maclaren Reunion will take place in Seattle, WA on the third weekend in July, 2009, that is: July 17, 18, 19, 2009. The main festivities will be on Friday evening, Saturday, and and wrap up on Sunday morning/early PM. We'll try to arrange some smaller things on Thursday. Feel free to arrive early and stay later. We'd love it.

Suggest things you think some or most of us will be interested in. Make up your own special interest groups, etc. Check the web for Seattle Visitors and Convention Bureau:

<http://www.visitseattle.org/visitors/> and other places on the web for ideas. I'll suggest more as the time goes on.

Rough Schedule, subject to change:

Thursday, if anyone is in town, a get together and then a small picnic-type thing in the early evening.

Friday, a tour of someplace (suggestions? Pike Place Market? Boeing Museum of Flight?) and an evening meal outdoors, weather permitting, or indoors?

Saturday, a late afternoon Cookout (or In), proceeded by a tour of the beautiful Japanese Gardens.

Sunday, a Brunch, more connecting, and good-byes, etc.

Now, I'm not tres computer savvy, and I'd like some help. Please forward this to your spouse/siblings/children/grandchildren if their names do not appear in the "To" line above, or if the email address for him or her is incorrect, and send me a cc of that forward. That way I'll be able to put together an up to date master list of names and email addresses of everyone, so future emails my be sent to all in one fell swoop. Thanks.

FYI, I'm now sending this first email announcement separately to each off the children: of David and Zaidee Hart + Offspring (for whom i have email addresses); of Morse and Cassie Borden; and of Walter and Dorothy MacLaren. Whew, try saying that three times fast!

Thanks for your help, and we look forward to seeing all of you in 2009.

The Seattle Harts, Alex, Cass and Bret, and Spouses, Carole and David, respectively.
